

Welcome to worship in the season of Pentecost. The green paraments remind us that this is the season of growth. The theme of Pentecost is living a Christian life. As Christ strengthens us through His Word, the spoken Word and the visible Word of the Sacraments, we grow more like Him in our thoughts, words, and deeds. Visitors, please sign our guest book and worship with us again soon!

Thank you to Marc Schriefer for leading worship this morning.

Council Members, please remember our meeting this Wednesday, August 24th, 7:00 p.m

In our thoughts and prayers,

- † Bernie & Eileen Keller, Don Kuch, & Ruth Rueb;
- † Joslyn Frey and Kyle Skalsky, as they mourn the death of their grandmother, Ida Skalsky;
- † Our neighbors, whose lives and property have been affected by tornadoes, floods, & other natural disasters;
- † For favorable weather, that all agricultural endeavors may produce a bountiful harvest.

Stewardship of Offerings and Attendance

Worship: 96 Offerings: $2,653.00

Our Epistle reading for today encourage us to offer our bodies as “living sacrifices” holy and pleasing to God. We often refer to our stewardship as firstfruits, proportionate and sacrificial. This means, among other things, that we are willing to go the extra mile in our support of the Lord’s work in our own communities as well as faraway mission fields. May we provide this support with joy and enthusiasm so that others will be invited to know Jesus.
