5th Sunday in Lent

"The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

Luke 20:17b

DIVINE SERVICE	Setting Three
Hymn of Invocation	# 425
Confession & Absolution	p. 184

Introit

Salvation belongs to the Lord;

your blessing be on your people!

But you, O Lord, are a shield about me,

my glory, and the lifter of my head.

I cried aloud to the Lord,

and he answered me from his holy hill.

I lay down and slept;

I woke again, for the Lord sustained me.

I will not be afraid of many thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around.

Salvation belongs to the Lord;

your blessing be on your people!

Salutation & Collect p. 189

Almighty God, by Your great goodness mercifully look upon Your people that we may be governed and preserved evermore in body and soul; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Old Testament: Isaiah 43:16-21 (ESV)

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings forth chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

"Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old.

Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The wild beasts will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.

Special Music: Handbells will ring "All Glory, Laud, and Honor".

Epistle Reading: Philippians 3:8-14 (ESV)

Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

“Alleluia” omitted during Lent

Holy Gospel: St. Luke 20:9-20 (ESV)

And [Jesus] began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard and let it out to tenants and went into another country for a long while. When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants, so that they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. And he sent another servant. But they also beat and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. And he sent yet a third. This one also they wounded and cast out. Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.' But when the tenants saw him, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him, so that the inheritance may be ours.' And they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "Surely not!" But he looked directly at them and said, "What then is this that is written:" 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone'?

Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him."

The scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on Him at that very hour, for they perceived that He had told this parable against them, but they feared the people. So they watched Him and sent spies, who pretended to be sincere, that they might catch Him in something He said, so as to deliver Him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor.

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion in which we joyfully receive Christ's Body and Blood, under bread and wine, for the forgiveness of our sins. As we celebrate the Sacrament, we also give public witness that we are in complete agreement with the denomination's doctrinal teachings at whose altar we commune. Therefore, we ask that only communicant members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod commune with us. All guests are asked to talk to Rev. Heller before coming to the altar to receive the Sacrament.

In our thoughts and prayers,

† Our nursing home residents, that God would keep them under His gracious care.

"He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others."

When they heard this they said, "Surely not!" Luke 20:16

The crowds were shocked at Jesus' parable because they took the grace of God for granted. They never thought that God would actually take "the vineyard" away from them. But we only have access to God by faith. And we can drive faith and the Holy Spirit away. That is the warning of the parable. The Lord has graciously given us His Kingdom. Let us not take it for granted, but instead let us respond with humble thanksgiving!

LWML Mites will be collected today following the gathering of our morning offering.

Behold the Man!: Please join us as we continue our midweek worship this Wednesday, April 10, at 6:30 pm. Our worship will focus on A God Who Thirsts. Supper will be served at 5:30 pm.

Council Members, we will meet following worship on Wednesday, April 10.

Palm Sunday: Children are welcome to carry palm branches into the sanctuary as part of our Palm Sunday worship. Please have your children in the education area at 9:45 am next Sunday, April 14.

Main Street Living is a locally produced TV program featuring area LCMS pastors. It can be seen at 10:00 am Sundays on Midcontinent Channel # 594 (the Xtra channel). On April 14, Rev. Chris Brademeyer presents the message "Who is this King?" The special LHM Easter program is "Easter Is."

The April calendar, birthday and anniversary sheet, and January council minutes are available on the table in the social hall.

During the month of April, donations of paper products will be collected for Women's Action & Resource Center. Items may include paper towels, napkins, bathroom tissue and Kleenex.

Thank you to the following for providing bars/cookies for the month of March. Deb Bonebrake and family, Sandy Buchmann, Tina Heller, Sarah Guild (angel food cakes), Connie Schmidt, Marlene Schriefer, Carol Weigum, and Julie Zahn.
