Welcome to worship in the season of Pentecost. The green paraments remind us that this is the season of growth. The theme of Pentecost is living a Christian life. As Christ strengthens us through His Word, the spoken Word and the visible Word of the Sacraments, we grow more like Him in our thoughts, words, and deeds. Visitors, please sign our guest book and worship with us again soon!

Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it (Pro.

22:6). Sunday School begins September 7th. Students and teachers are needed! Enrollment forms are on the table in the social hall. If you are willing to teach or substitute teach, please indicate it on the form. Please put all completed forms in Terence Schmidt's mailbox or give them to Pastor.

Stewardship Chair: We are in need of someone to serve as Stewardship Chairman on the Church council. If you are interested, please talk to Jamey Backus or Pastor Heller.

District Convention: The North Dakota District Convention is January 18-21, 2015, Grand Forks, ND. We are in need of a lay delegate to represent the parish of Concordia and Zion, Glen Ullin. If you are interested, please talk to Jamey Backus or Pastor Heller.

Card Shower: Edna Wolf will be celebrating her 90th birthday on September 4th. Her daughter would like to surprise her with a card shower. Cards can be sent to her at:

Edna Wolf 143 East Prince St. Apt. 3108 Gallatin, TN 37066

In our thoughts and prayers,

- † Deane Weidner, & Lowell Zuther (brother of Clare Renner);
- † Our schools, that all good and useful knowledge may flourish and grow;
- † For favorable weather, that all agricultural endeavors may produce a bountiful harvest;
- † The community of Ferguson, MO, its people, their officials, and all who live and work there, in light of the riots and unrest.

Stewardship of Offerings & Attendance

Attendance: 98 Offerings: $2,080.00

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding." Here is the key to faithful stewardship – and a faithful life in general! God's Law is not given to us to hamper our fun, but to show us God's own wisdom. All things being equal, won't a life lived in accordance with God's Word be more fulfilling and satisfying that a life lived at odds with God's Word? Doesn't He know better than we?

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion in which we joyfully receive Christ's Body and Blood, under bread and wine, for the forgiveness of our sins. As we celebrate the Sacrament, we also give public witness that we are in complete agreement with the denomination's doctrinal teachings at whose altar we commune. Therefore, we ask that only communicant members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod commune with us. All guests are asked to talk to Rev. Heller before coming to the altar to receive the Sacrament.

Please use a pew card to record your Church and/or Communion attendance this morning.

11th Sunday after Pentecost

You are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets,

Christ Jesus Himself being the cornerstone.

Hymn of Invocation # 802 Confession & Absolution p. 203

Introit

But we will bless the Lord

from this time forth and forevermore.

Praise the Lord!

As for me, I have set my King

on Zion, my holy hill.

I will tell of the decree:

The Lord said to me, "You are my Son; today I have begotten you."

Praise the Lord, all nations!

Extol him, all peoples!

For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever. Praise the Lord!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

But we will bless the Lord

from this time forth and forevermore.

Praise the Lord!

Almighty God, whom to know is everlasting life, grant us to know Your Son, Jesus, to be the way, the truth, and the life that we may boldly confess Him to be the Christ and steadfastly walk in the way that leads to life eternal; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Old Testament: Isaiah 51:1-6 (ESV)

"Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the Lord: look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug.

Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, that I might bless him and multiply him.

For the Lord comforts Zion; he comforts all her waste places and makes her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

"Give attention to me, my people, and give ear to me, my nation; for a law will go out from me, and I will set my justice for a light to the peoples.

My righteousness draws near, my salvation has gone out, and my arms will judge the peoples; the coastlands hope for me, and for my arm they wait.

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and they who dwell in it will die in like manner; but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will never be dismayed.

Gradual

Fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing! Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all.

Epistle Reading: Romans 11:33-12:8 (ESV)

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

"For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?"

"Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?"

For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

Alleluia and Verse p. 205

Holy Gospel: St. Matthew 16:13-20 (ESV)

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you. Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then He strictly charged the disciples to tell no one that He was the Christ.
