He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Philippians 2:8b

† In the Name of Jesus †

Procession with Palms (please rise)

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Amen.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna to the Son of David.

Collect

Let us pray...

Most merciful God, as the people of Jerusalem, with palms in their hands gathered to greet Your dearly beloved Son when He came into His Holy City, grant that we may ever hail Him as our King and, when He comes again, may go forth to meet Him with trusting and steadfast hearts and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twelfth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!"

His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about Him and had been done to Him. The crowd that had been with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to bear witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet Him was that they heard He had done this sign. So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are gaining nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him."

St. John 12:12-19 (ESV)

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Let us go forth in peace.

In the name of the Lord.

The Processional Hymn

442

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Collect

Let us pray...

Almighty and everlasting God, You sent Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon Himself our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross. Mercifully grant that we may follow the example of His great humility and patience and be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading: Zechariah 9:9-12 (ESV)

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall speak peace to the nations; his rule shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.

The Handchimes will ring "All Glory Laud and Honor" following the Old Testament Reading.

Epistle Reading: Philippians 2:5-11 (ESV)

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Holy Gospel: St. Mark 15:1-47 (ESV)

The congregation joins in the reading of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Mark by reading together the CAPITALIZED PORTIONS. The reading of the Passion begins without announcements and the usual responses are not used.

And as soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole Council. And they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him over to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so." And the chief priests accused him of many things. And Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer to make? See how many charges they bring against you." But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed.

Now at the feast he used to release for them one prisoner for whom they asked. And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barabbas. And the crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do as he usually did for them. And he answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?" For he perceived that it was out of envy that the chief priests had delivered him up. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release for them Barabbas instead. And Pilate again said to them, "Then what shall I do with the man you call the King of the Jews?" And they cried out again, "CRUCIFY HIM." And Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "CRUCIFY HIM." So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released for them Barabbas, and having scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

And the soldiers led him away inside the palace (that is, the governor's headquarters), and they called together the whole battalion. And they clothed him in a purple cloak, and twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on him. And they began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they were striking his head with a reed and spitting on him and kneeling down in homage to him. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. And they led him out to crucify him.

And they compelled a passerby, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. And they brought him to the place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull). And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it. And they crucified him and divided his garments among them, casting lots for them, to decide what each should take. And it was the third hour when they crucified him. And the inscription of the charge against him read, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." And with him they crucified two robbers, one on his right and one on his left.

And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads and saying, "AHA! YOU WHO WOULD DESTROY THE TEMPLE AND REBUILD IT IN THREE DAYS, SAVE YOURSELF, AND COME DOWN FROM THE CROSS!" So also the chief priests with the scribes mocked him to one another, saying, "HE SAVED OTHERS; HE CANNOT SAVE HIMSELF. LET THE CHRIST, THE KING OF ISRAEL, COME DOWN NOW FROM THE CROSS THAT WE MAY SEE AND BELIEVE." Those who were crucified with him also reviled him.

And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" And some of the bystanders hearing it said, "BEHOLD, HE IS CALLING ELIJAH." And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink, saying, "WAIT, LET US SEE WHETHER ELIJAH WILL COME TO TAKE HIM DOWN." And Jesus uttered a loud cry and breathed his last. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, "TRULY THIS MAN WAS THE SON OF GOD!"

There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. When he was in Galilee, they followed him and ministered to him, and there were also many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

And when evening had come, since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the Council, who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God, took courage and went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate was surprised to hear that he should have already died. And summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he was already dead. And when he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the corpse to Joseph. And Joseph bought a linen shroud, and taking him down, wrapped him in the linen shroud and laid him in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. And he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion in which we joyfully receive Christ's Body and Blood, under bread and wine, for the forgiveness of our sins. As we celebrate the Sacrament, we also give public witness that we are in complete agreement with the denomination's doctrinal teachings at whose altar we commune. Therefore, we ask that only communicant members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod commune with us. All guests are asked to talk to Rev. Heller before coming to the altar to receive the Sacrament.

In our thoughts and prayers,

Stewardship of Offerings & Attendance

“Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.” No king ever rode to war like this. But no king had ever come to wage battle by dying. In His Passion, our Lord Jesus gives everything He has and is to bring us from death to life: He is the king who wins by losing.

We are the North Dakota District – Holy Week is the holiest week of the Church year. This is the week of our salvation. I would encourage us all to journey with Christ throughout this week as we gather together on Holy Thursday with Jesus in the Upper Room and Gethsemane, on Good Friday at the cross of crucifixion, and on Easter Sunday in His glorious resurrection. It has been said that we cannot rise with Christ until we first die with Him. Our eternal salvation rests in this most holy week.

President Baneck

Welcome to worship on Palm Sunday, the Sunday of the Passion. The acclamation of the people, “Hosanna to the Son of David. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,” clearly reveal that they hailed Jesus as the Messianic King. Yet only days later, our Lord would hear the cry, “Crucify Him!” This contrast is reflected on this day as the joy of His triumphal entry into Jerusalem gives way to the somber remembrance of His passion. Visitors, please sign our guest book and worship with us again soon.

Please join us for Bible class after worship this morning.

Let's fill the altar with Easter Lilies! Please bring your own plant or place an order at the Boom'n House, 873-2291. Plants need to be at church by April 4th to be placed on the altar Easter morning. If you have any questions, please talk to Vicky Yeager, 873-5647.

Easter Breakfast: The LYF will be serving breakfast on Easter Sunday, April 5th, following worship. There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the social hall for donations of muffins/sweet rolls and juice.

A Joint LWML Meeting is scheduled for Thursday, April 9th, 7:00 pm. Election of officers is planned. Members are also asked to bring a bag of rice for filling neck wraps to take to the national convention in June.

LCMS ND and the LWML ND District invite you to attend a lunch workshop to educate church workers and lay members about human trafficking in North Dakota and how to respond to the victims. The workshop will be on Saturday, April 11th from 10:00 am to 2:45 pm at Baymont Inn & Suites, Mandan, ND. A registration and lunch fee of $10.00 will be collected. Forms and additional information are in the latest “Messenger” and also on the LWML bulletin board.

April Human Care Project is collecting paper products for Women's Action & Resource Center. Please put your donation in the shelf unit in the entryway.
