3rd Sunday of Easter

We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the Scriptures?

Romans 6:9; Luke 24:32

DIVINE SERVICE Setting One

Hymn of Invocation # 464

Confession & Absolution p. 151

Introit

In your presence there is fullness of joy;

at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up and have not let my foes rejoice over me.

O Lord my God, I cried to you for help,

and you have healed me.

O Lord, you have brought up my soul from Sheol;

you restored me to life from among those who go down to the pit.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his saints, and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a lifetime.

Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

In your presence there is fullness of joy;

at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Kyrie p. 152

“This is the Feast” p. 155

Salutation & Collect p. 156

O God, through the humiliation of Your Son You raised up the fallen world. Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

First Reading: Acts 3:11-21 (ESV)

While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's, astounded. And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, whom heaven must receive until the time for restoring all the things about which God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets long ago.”

Gradual

Christ has risen from the dead.

God the Father has crowned him with glory and honor,
He has given him dominion over the works of his hands;
he has put all things under his feet.

Epistle Reading: 1 John 3:1-7 (ESV)

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we will be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous.

“Alleluia”

Holy Gospel: St. Luke 24:36-49 (ESV)

As they were talking about these things, Jesus Himself stood among them, and said to them, “Peace to you!”

But they were startled and frightened and thought they saw a spirit. And He said to them, “Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Touch Me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, He said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave Him a piece of broiled fish, and He took it and ate before them.

Then He said to them, "These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled." Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion in which we joyfully receive Christ's Body and Blood, under bread and wine, for the forgiveness of our sins. As we celebrate the Sacrament, we also give public witness that we are in complete agreement with the denomination's doctrinal teachings at whose altar we commune. Therefore, we ask that only communicant members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod commune with us. All guests are asked to talk to Rev. Heller before coming to the altar to receive the Sacrament.

In our thoughts and prayers,

† For rain and favorable weather that we may have a bountiful harvest.

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! Welcome to worship in this season of Easter as we gather to rejoice that Christ has overcome death and the grave and opened the gate of everlasting life to us. “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death is your sting. Thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Co 15:55, 57). Visitors, please sign our guest book and worship with us again soon!

Brexyn Baker, son of Robert and Katlyn Baker, will be baptized on May 9th into the Concordia family. We will be doing a shower for Brexyn, but this time in a different fashion. Katlyn and Robert have a daughter, Hollyn, who spent time in NICU at hospitals and they have been doing a project for NICU’s since that time and would like to take donations for that project instead of getting gifts for themselves and Brexyn and pass those on to others in need. Every year, they pack up these project bags and deliver to the hospitals in Bismarck for families in need. Each bag includes a handmade blanket, burp cloth, color books and crayons for the kids and adult coloring books and word search books and colored pencils for the adult/caregiver. Other items used for the bags are books, toys, baby clothing and accessories such as Chapstick, hair ties, etc. If you would like to donate to this, please leave your items on the LWML table in the social hall and Katlyn will pick them up on May 9th to use for her project. Any questions, please talk to Katlyn or Nona. Thank you and Welcome to the Concordia Family Brexyn!

Gideons: Last Sunday, $446 was lovingly given to the Gideons for the spreading of God’s Word. For the Word of God is living and active (He 4:12).

During the month of April, donations of paper products will be collected for Women’s Action & Resource Center. Items may include paper towels, napkins, bathroom tissue and Kleenex.

The April calendar, birthday and anniversary sheet and council minutes are on the table in the social hall.

Main Street Living: On Sunday, April 25th, Rev. Tom Batchelder presents the message “A Little While,” based on John 16:16-22. Main Street Living is on Midcontinent Channel # 594 at 10:30 am Sundays.

The essence of our sanctification is becoming like our Lord. As St. John notes, this will only be completed in the Resurrection. In the meantime, we strive toward that goal because we want to walk in the footsteps of our Lord. By His grace we share His destiny in eternal life, and therefore we desire to share His life of service now.
